

A portion of every premium dollar goes to offset the cost of insurance fraud.

You can help stop insurance fraud.

Insurance fraud cheats everyone — insurance companies and policyholders alike. Not only does fraud, waste and abuse impact every line of insurance Rain and Hail provides, it also affects every policyholder by increasing premium costs.

To combat fraud, waste and abuse, Rain and Hail maintains a Special Investigative Unit (SIU). The SIU assists in the discovery, investigation and prosecution of fraud within the crop and agribusiness insurance industries.

Please report any suspected fraudulent activity anonymously and confidentially by calling the toll free number below.
