BULLETIN NO.: MGR-20-016

TO: All Approved Insurance Providers
All Risk Management Agency Field Offices
All Other Interested Parties

FROM: Martin R. Barbre
Administrator

SUBJECT: COVID-19 Additional Deferral of Interest Charges

BACKGROUND:

The Common Crop Insurance Policy, Basic Provisions (BP) state that interest will accrue starting the first day of the month, following issuance of the notice of premium due by the Approved Insurance Provider (AIP), provided that a minimum of 30 days has passed from the premium billing date.

The Risk Management Agency (RMA) recognizes the challenges the crop insurance industry and America's farmers and ranchers face and will provide flexibility that supports the health and safety of all parties while also ensuring the Federal crop insurance program continues to serve as a vital risk management tool.

ACTION:

AIPs are authorized to provide additional time for policyholders to make payment of premium and administrative fees. Interest accrual on premium payments and administrative fees, as noted above, will be waived to the earliest of an additional 60 days of the scheduled payment due date or the termination date on policies with premium billing dates between May 1, 2020, and July 31, 2020. AIPs will begin to accrue interest after this additional period for unpaid premium and administrative fees. AIPs should promptly notify potentially affected policyholders of said relief.

To assist the AIPs and provide relief from the requirements of the Standard Reinsurance Agreement (SRA) that all uncollected premium be paid to the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC), RMA will also defer collection of any unpaid producer premium and administrative fees, and waive all associated interest from AIPs accordingly beginning with the June monthly accounting reports.

AIPs are also authorized to provide additional time for policyholders to make payment for Written Payment Agreements due between May 1, 2020, and July 31, 2020. Payments may be extended up to 60 days of the scheduled payment due date and considered a timely payment. Such extension of time will not be considered a modification of the Written Payment Agreement, and the AIP may waive any additional interest for the payment during this 60-day period.
